Note: Freight costs are at cost price. TRV accepts no responsibility for transport damage. Upon receipt of merchandise, please check for possible damage and report it immediately to the shipper.

Unless otherwise agreed, all merchandise will be shipped via DHL International Express or equivalent. Shipments with measurements that exceed DHL limits will be sent by air freight. Payment for the goods and freight is normally due before shipment. Customs duty, VAT and any secondary freight costs are payable Cash on Delivery in Europe.

In the case of delivery errors, the following applies: Items, for which no manufacturer part number can be established, can be returned with refund for the value of the merchandise. The freight and duty cost, in this case, is not refundable. If there is a delivery error even when the correct part number is given in the order, there will be a complete refund including freight and customs duty.

Prices for 230V equipment, such as generator, converter or air conditioner, will be quoted upon request. Spare parts for US appliances, as well as chassis parts for major manufacturers, are available. The mfg., serial number, chassis number, if applicable, model number and the year of manufacture are required.

Prices are subject to change without notice.
